

MAKING YOUR PARENTS PROUD

QUIZ

Before you watch Making Your Parents Proud, take a few minutes to read the statements below and then select the statements that describe your outlook. After you watch the video, think about the difference (if any) between your attitude and Lola's. Finally, write a brief vision statement for yourself and date it. Make a copy and put it on your refrigerator at home for your family. Discuss your answers and your vision statement with your family and consider their responses.

1. A college degree equals higher earning potential.

I say:

I'm not interested in making more money.

I want a degree and I want the choices a school diploma.

I want a degree and I want the choices a college education gives me.

2. College graduates have more choices among

I say:

I'm not interested in going to college and then returning to my town to open a business here.

I'm interested in going to college and then returning to my town to open a business here.

3. College helps you to meet different types of people and exposes you to new ideas.

I say:

I'm open to learning about other people and other places.

I don't really want to leave my high school friends.

I'm happy living at home, but I might go to school nearby.

4. Going to college will help you set an example for your siblings and friends.

I say:

I really want to pave the way for my brothers and sisters to go to college, too.

I think a college degree will only help me because I did all the work.

I want to help them without going to college.

5. I don't want to worry about that right now.

I say:

I really want my own children to have a better life and go to college, too.

I'm not interested in that.

I'm not interested in that.

Did Lola make you change your mind about any of your answers?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

OWN IT

Here is my vision for my future and how I plan to make my parents proud:

---

---

---

---

---

Signed:

Date: